

Caring and Compassionate Skilled Nursing in West Salem, WI

Founded in 1856 and surrounded by some of the most scenic areas in western Wisconsin. West Salem was named by a Baptist minister named Elder Card because the word meant “peace” in Arabic and Hebrew.

Since 1963, Mulder Health Care has been providing the type of warm and compassionate care that people are accustomed to in the Midwest. From the moment you step through the doors our staff will work to provide thoughtful and individualistic care plans to help you reach your goals. Whether you are here for a short stay to build strength or for long term personal care, Mulder Health Care is here to help.

Our Community is Your Home for Healing

Mulder Health Care is a proud Medicare and Medicaid provider. We also accept many different insurance plans. Please inquire to determine if your stay is covered under your private insurance plan. Our door is open to those who need short term rehabilitation, respite care, or long-term assistance. We recognize the individuality and dignity of each resident and tailor our services to individual needs.
